PROBATION

You are hereby sentenced to probation for a term of:

5 Years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 2248, 2259, 2264, 2327, 3663, 3663A, and 3664. (check if applicable)
8. You must pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3013.
9. If this judgment imposes a fine, you must pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.
10. You must notify the court of any material change in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay restitution, fines, or special assessments.

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Anthony Vega
CASE NUMBER: 21 Cr. 186 (JPO)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: Anthony Vega
CASE NUMBER: 21 Cr. 186 (JPO)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

You will submit your person, residence, place of business, vehicle, and any property or electronic devices under your control to a search, on the basis that the Probation Officer has reasonable suspicion that contraband or evidence of a violation may be found. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. You shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

You shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment program approved by the Probation Office, which may include testing to determine whether you have reverted to using drugs or alcohol. You shall contribute to the costs of services rendered based on ability to pay and availability of third-party payment. The court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports, including the presentence report, to the substance abuse treatment provider.

You shall participate in an outpatient mental health treatment program approved by the Probation Office. You shall continue to take any prescribed medications unless otherwise instructed by the health care provider. You shall contribute to the costs of services rendered based on ability to pay and availability of third-party payment. The court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports, including the presentence report, to the health care provider.

You shall undergo a sex-offense-specific evaluation and participate in a sex offender treatment and/or outpatient mental health treatment program approved by the probation officer. You shall abide by the rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment program, including submission to polygraph testing. You shall waive confidentiality with respect to any records for mental health assessment and treatment imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the probation officer to review the course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider. You shall contribute to the costs of services rendered based on the ability to pay or availability of third party payment. The Court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to the sex offender treatment provider and/or the mental health treatment provider.

You shall permit the US Probation Office to install any application or software that allows it to monitor all activity on any computers, automated services, or connected devices that you will use that can access the Internet, and the Probation Office is authorized to install such applications or software (as fully set forth on page 27 of the PSR).

You shall report to the nearest Probation Office within 72 hours of [release] [the judgment].

You shall be supervised by the District of your residence.
